2013 F150 Crew Cab continues to make a popping noise in engine area. It started about 5 months after I had purchased vehicle and is not normal engine sound. The dealer is now saying this is normal and I do not agree that a popping noise that started after 4 months of ownership is acceptable. I did not pay 30K+ for a truck to have an engine popping sound.	1st visit	10/02/14	10/04/14	9812
